Should be Exercised With The Eyes.

Many cases have come to my notice where people have been duped by men here today and somewhere else tomorrow, which fact leads me to advise all persons needing attention given to their eyes to submit their cases to the resident Eye Specialist, who is known to all and who is here all the time to look after all his cases.

Very Respectfully,

LARGE PLATE GLASS BROKEN.

And Two Revolvers Stolen From Garland Daniel's Window.

Some bold rascal broke one of the large plate glass windows from the front of Garland Daniel's sporting goods store last night and purloined two valuable revolvers. One of the pistols was a 32 caliber Smith & Wesson; the other a handsome, 38 caliber, pearl handle Iver Johnson. The theft was committed between 1 and 2 o'clock. A gentleman who sleeps in the building on the corner of South Elm and East Washington streets heard the crash but supposed that it was in the McAdoo hotel and consequently did not investigate it.

There were four pistols on a display stand and the thief evidently expected to "swipe" all of them but when two were taken off, the stand was overbalanced and the other two fell off, out of his reach. The hole in the glass was not large enough to admit an arm. The stolen pistols are worth about sixteen dollars, the greater loss being the glass which will cost about fifty dollars to replace.

Alba Heywood.

As soon as an attraction is booked at the academy of music it is the customary question for the public to ask: "How many are there in the company?" The question that should be asked is: "Who are the actors or artists, and are they good?" It only requires a moment's reflection to realize that no manager can carry a company of ten, fifteen or twenty artists and have them all first class, for good artists not only demand a large salary, but insist on it being paid. Mr. Heywood believes that the general public prefer to see six or eight first class class artists to a whole stage full of "Barnstormers" and has surrounded himself with artists as fine in their respective lines as Heywood is in his. The result is a performance that from rise to fall of curtain is full of pure fresh fun, popular music, entertaining specialties and beautiful women. This attraction is to appear here on the evening of April 19.

Base Ball and Bull Fight.

The bull fight last night was absolutely the greatest fake ever seen in Greensboro. There was a good sized crowd and they heard a bull fight described and actually saw two men and a bull at play. The fight was the last thing on the program and the crowd left while Mr. Fernando Unpronounceable was still in the ring with his bovine play-fellow. Shake your red bandana at a common cow and you'll participate in a much more exciting fight (or chase) than was seen in Greensboro last night.

The female base ball team, which is under the same management as the bull fight, was some better and it is said that they played fair ball. They were defeated by the Greensboro team by a score of 12 to 10. The whole "shooting match" left this morning for Winston.

Ex-Judge Adams Referee.

Ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams, of this city, has been selected as postoffice referee for the fifth district. This is done to relieve the senator of a great deal of work which now falls on his hands. To Mr. Adams will be referred all candidates for the positions of fourth class postmasters in this district and his O. K. will be the same as Senator's endorsement. It's a new and novel scheme, but the senator has made a capital selection.

Oak Ridge-Guilford.

Those who intend to go out to Guilford College to the ball game Wednesday afternoon can make arrangements with Mr. Fred Taylor, of Tatum & Taylor, as to conveyances. The other ivory stables, too, will accommodate those who desire to go. A large attendance is expected from all the surrounding county. Playing begins promptly at 3 o'clock. The game will speak for itself. Admission 25c.

No Election.

Republican Committee.

A meeting of the city republican executive committee is hereby called to meet at the court house Wednesday evening, April 19th, at 8 o'clock.

The question where to buy your shoes is a very important one—the store that carries the best styles at the lowest prices is the place you want to trade at. Shrier has both. 216 South Elm street.

An All Star Aggregation.

One of the neatest lines of Oxford ties ever shown in Greensboro is now offered at Shrier's. Ordinarily it is difficult to procure a comfortable shoe under $1.50 or $2.00 as they are usually stiff and unyielding to the foot. Such is not the case with our $1.25 victrola Oxford ties in black and colors made over the popular coin toe. These shoes are soft and flexible and guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. QUAY'S STAR GROWS DIM.

Chance For Election Farther Away Than Ever.

ANY REPUBLICAN EXCEPT QUAY

About Seventy Republicans Hold a Conference and Resolve to Break Deadlock—Other Desertions.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Harrisburg, April 18—A conference of all the republican members who are favorable to breaking the deadlock and the election of any republican except Quay, was held in the senate chamber this morning, with Senator Scott as chairman and Representative Hosae as secretary.

Resolutions were adopted expressing the sense of those present that a senator should be elected, and that the interests of the party were paramount to the interest of any man.

Magoe moved that the votes of those present be cast for B. F. Jones, of Pittsburg, and this was adopted without dissent. About seventy were present.

Senators Magee, Crawford, Hertzler, Humel, Lazeh, Scott and Muehlbronn, and Representatives Hare, Clark, Henderson, Hosae, McFarland, McWhinn, Murdock, Nesbit Robinson, Scott, Shaw and Steelbare, are said to be among those who are likely to desert Quay today.

Col. Guffy, leader of the democrats, arrived today.

ON BOARD THE RALEIGH.

Handsomest Set of Punch Cups Presented to the Officers.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, April 18—On board the cruiser Raleigh today will be seen an interesting ceremony, when a party of southerners, representing Mrs. Haywood, of Raleigh, N. C., who christened the war ship, will present to the officers a handsome set of punch cups bowl which was a gift of the citizens of Raleigh. Mrs. Haywood intended to personally present the cups, but was prevented from leaving home by illness.

FILIPINO JUNTA

To Arrange Conference of Americans and Insurgents.

By Cable to The Telegram.

Manila, April 18—Twenty prominent Filipinos have formed a junta, and will arrange a conference between the Americans and insurgents for the purpose of effecting a peace.

The insurgent recruiting office at Manila was raided by the provost guard today. Three Filipino officers and fourteen recruits were captured and imprisoned, and insurgent funds amounting to one hundred thousand dollars were seized.

Quay's Trial.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Philadelphia, April 18—The Quay trial opened promptly this morning. Expert Goldsmith was on the stand and testified as to the Quay loans.

Goldsmith was sharply cross examined. It is evident from the brief examination of Goldsmith yesterday that the ruling of Judge Bidle ruling out testimony relating to other than an alleged specific conspiracy prevents the revelation of many alleged manipulations of the state funds on deposit in the People's bank.

A Royal Rescuer.

By Cable to The Telegram.

Rome, April 18—As the king and queen were leaving Cagliari, where they reviewed the Italian and French fleets, for Cassari, at noon, the roof of the railway station fell, killing one man and seriously injuring several. The king stopped the royal train, just pulling out, returned and rendered personal assistance.

Tripartite Proclamation.

By Cable to The Telegram.

Berlin, April 18—It is stated authoritatively that the German consul at Apia will receive cable instructions to join in a tripartite proclamation calling upon the inhabitants of Samoa to immediately desist all hostilities pending the arrival of the joint commission at Apia.

A Long Cruise.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, April 18—The cruiser Chicago left the navy yard this morning and started on a twenty thousand mile cruise to ports of the old world which have not seen the stars and stripes for years. The first land visited will be the Azores, thence to Africa. Capt. Cooper is in command.

ROAD MACHINE PURCHASED.

County Commissioners Placed the Order Yesterday.

Guilford's county commissioners, at a special meeting yesterday afternoon, took action which means much for the future good of the county. It was the acceptance of a proposition from citizens on the Pomona road. It will be remembered that the Pomona road citizens subscribed $1300 toward the purchase of a rock crushing outfit. The commissioners yesterday placed an order with the Good Roads Machine Company, of Kennett Square, Pa. through their agent, Mr. C. M. Scott, for an entire outfit, namely: one number 4 champion rock crusher, 1 mounted 18 horse power boiler and engine, 1 3/4 ton roller, 1 24 foot elevator, 3 iron gates and fittings and 1 18x24 foot screen. The outfit is to be delivered in August. This is what Guilford county has needed and the commissioners will have the thanks of the people of the entire county for their action in the matter.

Revival at First Presbyterian.

The special services being held during this week at the First Presbyterian church are growing in interest at each meeting. Those of our people who are not attending are missing an opportunity of hearing the truths of divine grace presented with rare power and earnestness. Mr. Eugene Gillespie, who is conducting this service, is a young man of whom our city is justly proud. He is the superintendent of evangelical work in the Presbyterian church in North Carolina, and young as he is, has already made an enviable reputation for his earnest consecration, sincere piety and fervent zeal and eloquence. The service on yesterday afternoon, when he took up the subject of God's promises to His people from time to time down to the coming of Christ and traced their literal fulfillment, was most helpful and uplifting. We bespeak for him a large attendance, feeling that all will be benefited by his earnest and forcible presentation of the Word.

Nominations for Aldermen.

For the administration of the city's affairs we need good business men, who have made a success of their own business, who have no axe to grind for themselves or others, who will devote themselves to the city's welfare, and who will faithfully represent the interests of all the people.

There are two such men in the second ward who eminently fulfill these requirements. They are J. M. Hendrix and J. W. Landreth.

Second Ward.

TOBACCO GROWERS AFFECTED

By The Decision of Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

THE NEW SPANISH MINISTER.

Is a Social Favorite and Very Wealthy—Gov. Russell Will Not Resign the Governorship.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, April 18—The commissioner of internal revenue recently made a decision which may seriously affect the tobacco growing states and work especial hardships to farmers having tobacco for sale. The ruling of the commissioner is in brief that a dealer after receiving tobacco from a farmer is required to pack it in hogsheads, cases, or bales, before offering it for sale to a third person. The decision, it is said by those who have examined it, will not be of any benefit to any one, but will seriously hinder persons having tobacco from making sales. Under the ruling a person buying tobacco from a farmer at a barn, or from a wagon, must pack it before he can offer it for sale, although he may purchase the tobacco at the very door of his warehouse. It often happens that dealers in tobacco buy the load from a farmer at their warehouses, and resell it without handling it at all. Under the ruling, it is said, this can no longer be done, for before it can be transferred to another party it must be packed as stated in the decision.

If adhered to this ruling will work much hardship to tobacco growers, for dealers very often will not buy if they are compelled to go to the expense of packing it before offering it for sale, and they may also require the farmers to pack it in accordance with the decision before buying tobacco at all. It was stated the other day that an attempt will be made to appeal from the decision of the commissioner of the internal revenue, and take it to a higher official. If the treasury department sustains the commissioner, then there may be a resort to the courts if the ruling is put into force. It is probable that a test case may be carried to the courts in order to obtain a decision as to the validity of the ruling.

The announcement of the appointment by the Spanish government of the Duke of Arcos as minister to the United States is received in social circles here with much pleasure, and his arrival in Washington is awaited with much anticipation. His wife was Miss Virginia Lowery, of Washington, who several years ago was one of the belles here, and much admired in social circles. The Duke of Arcos is said to be very wealthy, and was formerly Spanish minister to Mexico. If he comes to Washington, and of this there appears now to be no doubt, he will receive a warm welcome in diplomatic, as well as in social circles of the national capital, and his selection by the Spanish government will go far towards restoring amicable relations between the two countries.

As was anticipated the other day, the rumors regarding the resignation of Governor Russell, of North Carolina, are untrue, and the story that he will give up the governorship and remove to New York city for the purpose of practicing law, before the expiration of his term, is now authoritatively denied by his friends. The governor has no intention of resigning, although it is said here that after his term of governor expires, it is not improbable that he will enter into the practice of law in New York City.

Dr. Hunter McGuire, of Richmond, medical director of Jackson's corps delivered a lecture on Stonewall Jackson before Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, at the opera house, Alexandria, Virginia, last night. The Confederate Veteran Association and Ladies' Southern Relief Society from this city attended. The visitors returned to Washington at 11 p. m.

Chl. Boyd, Assistant Attorney General has gone to New York city. The colonel is a member of the committee arranging the "Raleigh" celebration.

M. W. Littleton has resigned as secretary of the North Carolina Society. George M. Bell has been elected as his successor.

Nancy E. Stephens has been appointed postmaster at McCammy, Wayne county, North Carolina.

The postoffice department has ordered special service change in North Carolina as follows: Provisional, Moore county, from Pattersons Bridge. From April 17th, change base of special supply to West End.

Henry M. Register has been commissioned postmaster at Corroll, Duplin county, North Carolina.

ACCIDENTS AND RUNAWAYS.

Bicycles, Buggies and Wagons Recklessly Demolished.

Two accidents occurred in quick succession, on Church street, between North Elm and Davis, yesterday afternoon. They were followed immediately by a runaway in which a colored boy came near being seriously hurt.

A white boy and negro, who were riding bicycles in opposite directions, at good speed collided in front of Mr. Albright's residence, the front wheel of the former's bicycle being smashed to scraps. About this time another young negro, driving a horse hitched to a dog cart, was passing and being curious by nature, stopped to view the wreck. He had not left room for other vehicles to pass and a passing wagon struck his cart and tumbled it completely over, tangling him up under the cart and throwing his horse. After a great deal of kicking the horse arose and ran away. Fortunately the negro had time to clear himself and escaped with only a few bruises. The frightened animal was caught on North Elm street, before any further damage was done.

Another runaway occurred on South Elm this morning. A horse belonging to Robt. Allen, colored, became frightened near the depot and dashed up the street regardless of cost. Soon after running into and breaking the rear wheel of a buggy near the Benbow, he left part of the wagon in the street. The last heard of him he was climbing the hill in front of G. F. College, at a three minute clip. Allen lives about ten miles from town and was here selling beef.

REPORTED DROWNED.

Thought That George B. Yates Was Lost at Sea.

Mrs. Carrie Yates received a message this morning stating that her husband George B. Yates was probably swept from a steamer in a heavy sea while enroute from Jamaica to Santiago and lost. He was missed shortly after the gale and it is supposed that he was drowned. This is indeed, sad news, if true. We hope there may be some mistake about it.

A CLEVER WRITER.

Rev. J. C. Troy, of Jonesboro, is an erudit as well as a most entertaining writer. His articles in the Charlotte Observer, from the vein of pleasantness that generally permeates them, are delightful. In this morning's Observer, the following good-natured but no less able handling of a delicate question is very interesting in its clearness and beautiful, almost child-like simplicity:

It was a clever turn that my friend and old school-mate, the Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of Winston, gave, in his sermon a few days ago at Charlotte, to the passage of Scripture, "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." He taught by a syllogism that whoever cometh was given by the Father. This proposition suggested the question, "Who has the Father given?" "Whoever cometh." Pretty good! You see Presbyterianism, or rather Calvinism in this analysis, but that is all right. The preacher is made that way from the ground up. He is a good preacher and ditto writer. His articles written from the old country to the Observer were interesting and profitable reading. His treatment of the above text is similar to that given in the same church some years ago, by a former pastor, to John 3:16. "Whoever," said the preacher, "opens the gate of salvation indiscriminately; but, only those who believe, and go in, are saved." And of course the preacher would conclude, that they, who went in were the ones whom the Father had given. There is not a particle of difference between Calvinism and Arminianism, (Methodism) when you get through this gate; only that the latter will permit you to slip out occasionally, while the former allows no such privilege. But we prefer that they would not take such liberties, accorded by free grace, but remain on the inside with their good Presbyterian brothers. For some time in attempting to return it might be they would find no latch to the golden gate. While the gate is always open, it is the best to go in and stay in; for some day, the Scriptures teach, it will be closed; and closed forever!

Mr. Troy has that spirit which is so admirable and which marks the true man of God.

Wouldn't it be awful if the people of Philadelphia should, in search of life and happiness, abandon the great, classic city to the bats and owls because of its impracticability as a healthful location. This thought is suggested by the Record—which is a mighty learned newspaper—in an able editorial on the improved water question, from which we append an extract:

So imperative is the necessity, it is hardly putting it too strongly to declare that unless the people of Philadelphia can be assured of a future healthful water supply the site of the city should be abandoned. To have a reasonable warranty of living an average life is a matter of such practical interest to everybody that it will in the long run govern the question of locality. Nothing can be of greater municipal importance than the means of promoting the public health. It therefore follows that when we shall have done what can be done to improve and assure the quantity and quality of the Schuylkill water we should look ahead and prepare for the future.

Lieutenant Scott's story that Worth Bagley, the hero of Cardenas, was killed by a shell from the Wilmington, proves to be a sensational lie. Those of his comrades who know, testify that he was killed by the Spaniards, and that it was impossible for him to be struck by the Wilmington's shells owing to the fact that the guns of the gunboat were pointed. But even if this sensational story were true it would in no wise detract from the glory of the young North Carolinian's death. He fell with his face to the foe—at the enemy's very teeth—and even if his own comrades had accidentally killed him as the Confederate soldiers killed the immortal Jackson at Chancellorsville, his fame would not have been dimmed, and his name would have gone sounding down the ages covered with as much glory as if he had yielded up his life in the death-grapple.

Captain Adna Clarke, of the Lawrence (Kan.) company, writes from the Philippines that one night when all was still, the respective armies facing each other in the trenches and waiting for the signal which was to begin the struggle of death, a cornet player over in the insurgent lines commenced to play some beautiful solos, among which were "Marching Through Georgia" and "Stand Up For Jesus." Captain Clarke says that the music was delightful and that the whole American line listened in rapture. This is rather queer and quite a reversal of the supposed order of things—our army enchanted by the savage army's music.

The Raleigh Morning Post's extra Monday edition yesterday giving a full account of the arrival of the cruiser Raleigh at New York and the ceremonies incident thereto, was a happy surprise to its readers. The Post is rapidly forging to the front as an able Southern journal, and its scooping propensities increase with its age.

Charlotte has a genuine case of the scallop. This announcement will of course cause some uneasiness, but the physicians in charge give assurance that there is no need of any alarm—Charlotte News.

The inference to be drawn from the latter portion of the above-quoted squib is the most alarming thing about it.

Carter Harrison says "A republic's first need is purity of the ballot. Its second need is the absolute incorruptibility of those entrusted with the reins of government." And its last need, Mr. Harrison failed to state, is that greedy reaching out for distant lands to which it has no title.

8 p. m. Convention Sermon by Rev. A. C. Bowen, Winston, N. C.

Consecration. Adjournment.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.

Up-to-date Shoes.

Try a pair of our $3.50 tan or black kid shoes for $3.50. The only up-to-date line of men's shoes in the city, at Shrier's, 216 South Elm.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

Spring and Summer Footwear.

Our lines are complete. We carry every style in men's, women's and children's shoes for spring and summer. These goods are made up expressly for us and we guarantee the wear of every pair. Shrier's, 216 South Elm street.

FORGING A FATAL CHAIN.

Trial of Lake City Lynching Case Expected to Close This Week.

Charlotte, S. C., April 17.—The prosecution in the Lake City lynching case began today to forge a chain of strong evidence around the eight men now on trial. The only evidence presented by the defence consisted of weak alibis, and this afternoon the defence rested without offering any alibi for Henry Stokes; who was the alleged ringleader of the mob.

In rebuttal, the government will put on twenty-six witnesses, and the trial is expected to end Friday. This afternoon it was shown that the court records introduced by the defence to show that Newham, who turned State's evidence, was not at Lake City the day of the lynching, and therefore could not have seen the murder, had been tampered with and important ones destroyed.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a thoroughly antiseptic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

The best wearing children's shoes ever sold in Greensboro is our line at $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75. Misses and children's shoes in tan or black, lace or button. We warrant every pair. Shrier's, 216 South Elm street.

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. They are good pills. Howard Gardner.

Men's tan and black kid and Russia calf shoes at $3.00 and $3.50. No shoes ever bought in Greensboro compare with these; as to fit, wear and comfort, try a pair at Shrier's, 216 South Elm street.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Perry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

City Democratic Convention.

The democratic voters of the city of Greensboro are hereby notified to meet at the usual place in their respective wards on Thursday night, April 27th, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating two aldermen in each ward and to select a member of the city executive committee.

The following places have been designated for the ward meetings:

1st Ward—Farmers' Warehouse.

2nd Ward—County Court House.

3rd Ward—Market House.

4th Ward—Banner Warehouse.

5th Ward—No. 112 Lewis street.

6th Ward—South Greensboro Graded School Building.

And on Friday night, April 28th, at 8 o'clock, there will be a general convention of the democratic voters in the court house to notify the nominations of aldermen made in the different wards and to nominate a candidate for mayor.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholia. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Too many people overlook their own

The only rest for the wicked is an

Some Cases of Kleptomania.

Here are some striking cases of klep-tomania: A series of thefts was committed in some of the best houses in New York. The culprit turned out to be a young woman connected by birth and marriage with the owners. Thereafter, when from a household which she had visited anything was missed, the owner would go to her, kiss her and ask it back. It was quite a family matter.

At that time there was a journalist about town who was both a social favorite and an able man. He kept a bachelor establishment in which it was his amiable habit to entertain those in the afternoon or of an evening people would gather and take back from his drawing room things which he had taken from theirs. There was never a word exchanged on the subject. Perfect courtesy prevailed.

Then there was a young fellow whose name figures in the early history of the United States. At a dinner which he attended a ring handed about for inspection disappeared. So much was said that later he returned it with a statement to the effect that it had caught in the lining of his sleeve. A few days afterward we heard Talbot—dead since, but not forgotten—ordering a coat of a tailor whom we patronized in common and expressly stipulating that it should not have that kind of sleeve.
In each of these instances the case belonged not to jurisprudence, but to pathology. Kleptomania is a disease, like influenza, only, thank fortune, less catching.—Collier's Weekly.

A Good Story of Landseer.

Landseer, riding down Bond street,
saw the following notice in a picture dealer's shop window, "A Fine Landseer on View Within." He went into the shop and asked to see the "fine Landseer." The dealer, who did not recognize him, proudly pointed out the work. It was rather an early one. The dealer was, of course, loud in his praise.
"And how much do you want for it?" said Landseer.

"Two thousand guineas, sir," was the reply.

"Two thousand guineas? That seems a long price for an early work."

"I could not take a shilling less,"
said the dealer. "He's gone, sir," touching his forehead significantly.

"He's out of his mind. He'll never part."

"Is he indeed?" said Landseer. "I'm very sorry to hear that." And as he was coming away he noticed a large picture by Stanfield. "May I ask what you want for this Stanfield?"

"That, sir, is also 2,000 guineas."

"What?" said Landseer, touching his forehead and imitating the dealer's gesture. "Is Stanfield gone too?"

Bamboo Fortifications.

Throughout the east the bamboo plays an important role in nearly every kind of outdoor work. In building earthworks it is utilized very cleverly indeed.
In sandy soil or in the soft loam along the swamps two rows of bamboo are driven, about four feet apart. The lengths of bamboo are about 10 or 12 feet long, and the thickness up near four inches. Earth or sand is thrown in between the rows of bamboo, making a ditch in front of the stockade. A third row of bamboo is then driven four feet in the rear of the inner row, but this row rises only a couple of feet above the natural level of the soil. More earth or sand is filled in, and the filling in each case is rammed down as hard as possible.

Where there has been a sufficient length of time to cut porches through the front thickness of earth the men in the fortifications thus thrown up need not expose themselves at all, but when,
as in all cases of rapidly constructed field works, temporary protection alone has been desired, the rows of bamboo do not rise more than three feet above the natural level, and the men lie down or crouch behind the protection thus afforded and fire over it.

Such works will keep out any rifle ball, and will even so localize shrapnel fire as to make it very ineffective. If the shrapnel strikes the bamboo before exploding it will harm only those directly in front of it. If it bursts before reaching the earthwork the shrapnel balls will fall to penetrate it.

Religion and the Possum.

An incident told by the Rev. V. B.
Carroll in The Homiletic Review makes apparent the necessity in this transition period of getting the negro inwardly right in order that his relationship to society may be right.

We were driving out one Sunday from Decatur, when we came upon a negro, with a club in his hand and a freshly killed possum on his shoulder.
We stopped to examine his prize, and the colonel said:

"My friend, do you know it is Sunday?"

"Sartin, boss."

"Are you not a religious man?"

"I are. I're jist on my way home from church."

"And what sort of religion have you got that permits you to go hunting on Sunday?"

"Religion, religion?" queried the Harving Heretics.

The following items, copied from the municipal records of Canterbury by The Windsor Magazine, show that the burning of heretics in 1535 (the time of the general King Henry VIII) was an inconspicuous amusement:

They Have No Nerves.

A German tourist declares that what principally distinguishes Chinamen from us is their utter freedom from nervousness. No matter how much they exert themselves, they always remain phlegmatic, and they can sleep anywhere, in any position and in any amount of noise.

A Person to Be Avoided.

"Palanquin is certainly a man to avoid. People have told me stories about him which are not edifying."

"Really? You do well to tell me, for I need not now give him back the money he loaned me."—Figaro.

Mrs. Chinnee—Ernestine, my darling,
do you expect Constant tonight?

Ernestine—Of course, mamma. Why do you inquire?

Mrs. Chinnee—If he asks you to marry him, tell him to come and speak to me.

Ernestine—And if he doesn't ask me?

Mrs. Chinnee—Tell him I am coming to speak to him.—Brooklyn Life.

Key to the Situation

Is This? One might as well try to lift themselves in a basket as to try to undersell us. Cheapest Store on Earth is the combination that unlocks the pocketbooks of the masses. Cash has been and is still the axle grease of our business. With it we scoop in panic merchants and manufacturers of their entire stocks, often at less than the cost of making. This is the reason we are always throwing on the market Shoes, Clothing, Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings, Hats and Notions, etc., at such astounding low prices. Rushed with business you see from a whirlwind of bargains that is constantly being driven on all the time. Liston: Silks 15c up; $1 quality 50c; checked dimities 25c; good calico 25c; gingham 25c; che-cks 25c; plain lawn 25c; 3 pair 1 dies hose 5c; ladies shirt waists 15c up; yard wide organdie 5c; good quality colored organdie 7c, cheap at 10c; white laundered shirts 25c; work shirts 10c; men's socks, good quality 5c; pants 25c; ladies button shoes 35c; 21 yards Barker bleaching, $1. Everything cheap. Prices cut in two in the middle and set on fire at both ends. If you are digging for dollars, come right along and pick them up on the surface at Meeting at the Baptist Church.

There was, perhaps, more serious attention given to the sermon last night than at any previous meeting; and well there should have been, for a more solemn, earnest sermon we never heard. The subject was "Eternal Torment," a theme too much neglected in this day of sentimentalism. The preacher presented a strong array of unanswerable arguments, showing why there should be a place of eternal torment. With breathless attention the people listened to the solemn truths. At the conclusion of the sermon quite a number asked the prayers of God's people. Preaching today at 4 and 8 p. m.

Every day the growing crowd gives evidence of their appreciation of our new idea of progressive merchandising and we find a most pleasing result from our new method. Instead of figuring how to make the largest profits, we find better results from figuring how to use greater purchases, and day by day our business increases, because in creating the outlet we are enabled to dispose of larger quantities—and in many instances the manufacturer's entire stock in a few days' time. We don't mean by this that we can give you one dollar's worth of goods for five cents, but we do mean that we often buy such stocks at a great sacrifice and we give our customers the benefit. The manufacturers come to us because they know that no quantity is too large and no quality too fine for us to handle.

Every table will be laden with bright new bargains in desirable white goods, wash goods, dress goods, silks, ribbons, laces, embroideries, etc., etc., for this week's sale.

"The Merry Maid."

A rare treat and pleasant evening is in store for all those who attend the production at the academy of music on the evening of April 20th, of the exceedingly funny farcical comedy "The Merry Maid" by the Paint and Powder Club of Wilmington, N. C. The Club is touring the state for the Shelter of the Silver Cross, a summer home for indigent children at Wrightsville Beach, maintained by the King's Daughters, and the present trip is under the personal direction of Manager S. A. Schloss, of the Wilmington opera house. The Wilmington press are boisterous in the praise accorded their Thespians, and doubtless our people will welcome the club right royally.

Our lines for Spring are now complete and only await the prestige of your approval.

Owing to our central location and the nominal expense required to conduct our business, we are enabled to sell our goods 25 per cent cheaper than any house in Greensboro, quality and make considered.

The question where to buy good and reliable goods at the right price is a very important one. We feel if you call on us, we can answer the question to your entire satisfaction, and make a lasting impression besides.

Do not be deluded by the thought that the assortments in the large cities are greater. True, the quantity is greater, but the assortment is no better, and the price is correspondingly higher, owing to the increased expense.

Kindly call on us at your earliest convenience and allow us to prove to you that these statements are true.
